and

Chief Executive Officer

About this document

Delegations and authorisations are the means by which decision making bodies can access the power to undertake certain statutory functions.

A delegation is a conferral of the ability to exercise a power or duty to a person or body from a person or body that is vested with the responsibility to exercise that power or duty.

The Register of Delegations records the compiled delegations made by Council and the Chief Executive Officer under the authority of the Local Government Act 1995 and other legislative instruments as specified.

Definitions

The Local Government Act 1995 has not defined the term “delegation” or “delegated power”, however:

- s.5.16 refers to “...the exercise of any of its powers and duties...”
- s.5.42 refers to “...the exercise of any of its powers or the discharge of any of its duties...”

The following terms used in this document apply insofar as they are consistent with enabling legislation.

“Authority” means the permission or requirement for a committee or an officer to act in accordance with:

- the Local Government Act 1995, regulation or other legislation,
- a delegation made by Council,
- a policy made by Council, or
- a specific decision by Council.

“Delegation” means the authority to exercise a power, or discharge a duty, as conferred under the provisions of the relevant legislation.

“Policy” as the context requires, means either:

- a procedural direction to officers to implement Council’s wishes or instruction in a particular way; or
- the authority for officers to act, where that authority is not considered a delegation of a legislative or other specific power or duty.

“Instruction” means the requirement for a staff member to act in accordance with a direction given by the CEO, senior officer or supervisor.

Department of Local Government, Sport & Cultural Industries – Guideline No. 17

The Department of Local Government, Sport & Cultural Industries has published guidelines for the formation of delegations.

Guideline No. 17 can be found on the Department website www.dlgsc.wa.gov.au

Administration

Delegations from Council require approval by an absolute majority of Council.

Delegations from the CEO to other employees are at the discretion of the CEO and do not require a Council resolution. The CEO can delegate a power or duty, the exercise or discharge of which has been delegated by a local government to the CEO, subject to any conditions imposed by the local government on its delegation to the CEO (s.5.44(3)).

It is a requirement that the use of all delegated authority is recorded but it is not a requirement to report the use of delegated authority to Council.

Record Keeping

Section 5.46 of the Local Government Act 1995 and Regulation 19 of the Local Government (Administration) Regulations 1996 require a person who is delegated a power or duty to keep records in relation to the exercise of the power or discharge of the duty. The written record is to contain:

- How the person executed the delegation;
- When the person executed the delegation; and
- The persons or classes of persons, other than Council or committee members or employees of the local government, directly affected by the exercise of the power or the discharge of the duty.

Review of Delegations

A delegation has effect for the period of time specified in the delegation or indefinitely if no period has been specified.

However, it is a requirement of the Local Government Act 1995 s.5.18 and s.5.46(1) that all delegations made under the authority of the Act be reviewed by the delegator at least once in each financial year.

Any decision to amend or revoke a delegation by a local government is to be an absolute majority (s.5.45(1)(b)).

Review of delegations from the Council to committees and the CEO will be carried out before the end of each financial year and preferably in conjunction with the annual review of Council policies.

The CEO will review delegations as required on changeover of staff or change of staff functions and will review all delegations at least once in the financial year in accordance with the Act.

New Delegations

Council and the CEO may make new delegations at any time.

However, unless specifically resolved that the authority is to be included in the Register of Delegations, the authority to act is for a specific matter, and is not a general or ongoing delegation.
