The three Winter Sports Clubs have paid their payment for the 2019-20. This was discussed in Round Table at the May meeting.

The Presiding Officer declined for it to be discussed as Urgent Business (not a late motion) at the June meeting.

COMMENT:

The three Winter Sports have paid their payments for 2019-2020.

They did not use the Nungarin Community Recreation Centre for the 2020 winter sports season.

Therefore they have missed a total season of bar takings from the sports usually played during the season.

AS we are in a new financial year and to refund their money from the 2019-20 financial year (as I had intended to put to Council at the June meeting in Urgent Business) would now be 'messy'. I would like Council to consider setting the rate for the fees for all the sports, then suspend payment by the Winter Sports for the 2020-21 financial year.

This would support the Winter Sports as they have difficulty at times in a normal season to meet all their obligations and due to the circumstances it will be more difficult financially next year if extra support is not given.

I am aware that the Shire has watered and mowed the Oval but this would occur anyway due to a decision taken by Council previously.

Recommendation:

1. That once Council sets the fees for the Sports using the Nungarin Community Recreation Centre then payment by the three winter sports, Nungarin & Towns Football Club, Towns Hockey Club and the Nungarin Panthers Netball Club be suspended for the 2020-21 season.
